TEACHING VACANCIES

Information Computer Technology (ICT) Y7 – GCSE level	(6 hours per week)
Music Y7 – GCSE Level	(3 hours per week)
PE Y7 – 11	(1-2 hours per week)

There are part-time teaching vacancies from 16th April 2018. Ability to demonstrate an aptitude for teaching is vital, but a formal teaching qualification may not be necessary as teacher training will be given. Candidates who can combine some or all of the subjects will be considered, and all candidates will undergo statutory safeguarding checks.

Applicants should send their CV, 2 referees and a covering letter, saying why they would like to teach the relevant subjects, and what they can bring to a small, but dynamic and growing school. For further details, please contact Mrs. M. Wiltshire, Headteacher, at headteacher@emmaus-school.org.uk

*Emmaus School is a non-denominational Christian School which welcomes children of different abilities from all backgrounds. The School aims to educate children, with reference to a Christian World View, to a high standard, in preparation for contemporary society, in a supportive and happy family-orientated environment which caters for the needs of the individual. Pupils at the school thrive spiritually, emotionally, socially, physically and academically. The school is committed to the safeguarding and welfare of all pupils.
